

Context Sensitive Solutions

- Consider a highway's effects on the community's aesthetic, social, economic and environmental values, needs and constraints
- Engage the community including electeds and a wide representation of interested citizens
- Ensure a facility is safe for both the user and the community
- Place a high value on seeking and achieving consensus